

mahan gallery

1042 North High Street

Columbus, Ohio 43201

614-294-3278

www.mahangallery.com

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

July 05, 2004

Mahan Gallery Opens New Exhibition, Die Kase Hause and Friends: A Drawing and Painting Show; reception, Saturday, July 10, 6-10 pm.

The Mahan Gallery will exhibit selected work from the artists of Die Kase Hause. The group show will include drawings and paintings by the original four members; Jeremiah Ketner, David Phillips, A. Greg Raymond, and Greg Shirilla, and newcomers Jeff Williams and Aaron Zimmerman, as well as friends of Die Kase Hause; Heather Borland, Nick Butler, Mike Coleman, Sayre Gomez, Thom Lessner, Dustin Mertz, and Brett Superstar.

Die Kase Hause, which means "The Cheese House" in German, is an avant-garde movement whose purpose is to discover innovative artists and help them receive recognition for their work. The movement was conceived in 1994 by a group of students from the Columbus College of Art and Design. The group has undergone several transformations as some members have moved to different cities for careers and education, and as the group has added many new worthy artists.

The opening reception for Die Kase Hause show will take place Saturday, July 10, from 6-10 pm. The show will be up from July 10 to August 5.

The Mahan Gallery focuses on emerging and mid-career artists working in a variety of media, including painting, photography, and sculpture. Gallery hours are Monday-Friday from 11am-7pm; Saturday-Sunday 12pm-6pm. The Mahan Gallery is located at 1042 N High St

- Please note our hours have changed.