Stars Fill Mahan Gallery For Kerry

Actresses Claire Danes, (My So Called Life, The Hours, Igby Goes Down) and Rashida Jones, (Little Black Book), Andre Heinz (environmentalist, and John Kerry's stepson), and musician Will (The Black Eyed Peas), joined Jacqueline Mahan in hosting a John Kerry for President Campaign event on Monday Sept 27, at the Mahan Gallery in the Short North.

150 guests mingled with the out of town visitors, viewed the artwork on display, and sipped red Kerry Cocktails, courtesy of the Bristol Bar. The Mahan Gallery has hosted several previous exhibits relevant to the current political climate, including a Fourth of July exhibition entitled Falah Schwan: Iraq in Black and White, that featured the work of a political cartoonist who had fled Iraq during the height of Saddam Hussein's rule. Several of the pieces on exhibit were treasured paintings carried by Schwan when he fled Iraq for Iran.
